

HAUS OF HER

HER face

Haus of Her was created with the belief that every bride deserves to feel comfortable, confident and genuinely looked after on one of the most important days of her life.

What began as a passion for bridal beauty has grown into a trusted team of talented hair stylists and makeup artists who share the same love for creating beautiful, personalised looks while providing a calm and enjoyable experience from start to finish.

Haus of Her was brought to life by Director, Amanda, who wanted to create more than just a bridal hair and makeup business. She wanted to build a space that celebrated women, created meaningful connections and made every bride feel truly seen. With a deep love for weddings and the moments that surround them, Amanda created Haus of Her with the vision of bringing together talented women who could not only create beautiful work, but who genuinely cared about the women sitting in their chairs.

We understand that your wedding morning is about so much more than hair and makeup. It's the laughter, the happy tears, the stories, the excitement and the memories being made with your favourite people before you walk down the aisle. Our role is to make that part of your day feel effortless, enjoyable and something you'll look back on fondly.

Haus of Her is known throughout the Hunter Valley and surrounding regions for our professionalism, reliability and the genuine care we give to every bride and bridal party. Our clients often tell us that they chose Haus of Her not only because of our work, but because of the experience we provide and the confidence they feel knowing they are in safe hands.

Thank you for considering Haus of Her to be part of your special day.

We are so excited to learn more about you, your vision and the people who will be beside you.

We would be honoured to be part of your HER moment.

“Where do I even begin!

From the moment I sat in the chair, I knew I was in the best hands. My hair and makeup were absolutely flawless and everything I had dreamed of (and more!). Not only did I feel so confident and beautiful, but the entire experience was calm, fun, and completely stress-free — exactly what every bride needs on her wedding day.

The attention to detail, professionalism, and genuine care shown was incredible.

Everything lasted perfectly all day and night — through happy tears, hugs, and a full dance floor!

Thank you for making me feel like the most beautiful version of myself. I truly couldn't recommend you more highly to any future brides or anyone wanting to feel extra special”

HER experience

“As someone who works in the public eye, discretion and professionalism was incredibly important to my fiancé and I when choosing any service, especially for something as personal as hair and makeup.

From the very beginning, Amanda and the team at Haus of Her went above and beyond to ensure I felt comfortable, respected, and completely taken care of. They were more than happy to accommodate confidentiality requirements, including signing contracts and agreeing not to share any images or details on social media

That level of respect and professionalism meant the world to me and allowed me to fully relax and enjoy the experience. On the day, their warmth and kindness immediately put me at ease. The team was patient, calm, and incredibly attentive nothing ever felt rushed or stressful. They listened carefully to what I envisioned and brought it to life even more beautifully than I could have imagined.

The hair and makeup itself was absolutely flawless.

It photographed beautifully, lasted all day and night, and still felt comfortable and natural to wear.

I have never felt more confident, beautiful or more like myself.

Haus of Her delivers not only exceptional artistry but also an experience that feels thoughtful, supportive, and genuinely special.

I now recommend them every chance I get and would trust them again in a heartbeat.”
